This book is filled with uplifting words to make a difference in someone's life and tell someone special, "I prayed for you today." Whether you're experiencing a temporary setback, a health issue, or some unexpected, life-altering event, these good thoughts and best wishes are positive reminders that, with the help and support of family, faith, and friends, anything is possible.

In her characteristic spirit of optimism, which has made her one of country music's most memorable stars, Donna Fargo shares with readers some of the lessons she's learned when faced with mountains in her own life. She encourages taking authority over problems, living life one day at a time, and always believing in the importance of prayer. Donna inspires readers to trust that you are not alone, that God is with you all the time, but it is your responsibility to draw near to Him and to develop your faith. She believes that prayer is the most loving way to show someone how much you care.
