BOOK #1 PREVIEW

Benjamin leaned back in his seat, surveying the room. His wealthiest uncle had died, and it had brought about several people to join him for his funeral. All of them had really appreciated his wealth, and talked a lot about what a good person he was, and how much he had done for the community. Benjamin knew that they were just saving face, because nobody had liked his uncle. He had heard gossip upon gossip about him, and if he didn't hear it for himself, he had little spies who knew who was saying what, and would report back to him about it.

BOOK #2 PREVIEW

It was a blistering hot day under the warm sun as the peasants worked the fields. The heat from the sky drenched the peasants toiling with the threshers with a reckless sweat, unable to stop for a break even if they wanted to.

Lord Duncan was about to launch a celebratory party in honour of the year's most successful harvest, and it was the peasants who bore most of the burden.

In the distance, Lord Duncan's daughter, Melanie, was sitting in the castle, sighing.

BOOK #3 PREVIEW

For young Maya, she knew that her life was destined to be one that was going to be hard. She knew that at the age of 19, since she didn't have a husband or anyone who would take her, she would have to do this in order to pay off her debts. Of course, being a geisha at a brothel was not something that she expected, and she always thought that maybe one day, one day in the future, she would be able to get out of this.

BOOK #4 PREVIEW

Julia watched as the man that she hated came up to her. It was her fiancé, the man that her parents were forcing her to marry. They only wanted her to do that because she was to be the queen of the throne, and she wondered if maybe there was a reason for all of this. She didn't like William, but instead wanted George the knight that she had been hopelessly in love with for a long time. Of course if her parents knew that, she would be screwed, for they would force her to marry even faster than they were now, which was pretty quickly considering she was already being ordered to go find a ball gown to wear for the wedding in three days.

BOOK #5 PREVIEW

Alexius knew that it was going to be hard, especially when she wasn't supposed to even be a part of the military, but as she continued to pretend to be in this whole mess, she wondered if everything would be okay. Pretending to be a part of the samurai was certainly something hard, and she worked pretty hard to perfect her ability to be like this. But then again, the other person that kept looking at her started to catch on. That was Haruka. Haruka was the name that he went by, and young Ming started to feel like maybe she was being seen by him.
