Neil Simon Monologues: Speeches from the Works of America's Foremost Playwright Neil Simon

This is the first authorized collection of monologues from Mr. Simon's plays and the most significant contribution to the drama genre in the past twenty-five years. As a scene-study book it is invaluable to actors at all levels. This definitive publication contains speeches for men and women from "Come Blow Your Horn" through "Jake's Women." Each play is comprehensively synopsised, and an in-depth exposition establishing setting and intent precedes each speech. With an introduction by Jack Lemmon.
