Marie had the perfect working relationship with her boss and political candidate, Jack Lawson- business by day, pleasure by night. But when Jack moves away to conquer his political aspirations, he leaves behind more than just a lover. Faced with the choice to either expose her relationship with Jack by telling him about the secret she carried, which would surely spell political scandal, or keep it from him, Marie chooses to keep their baby a secret.

Three years later Jack moves back to town and Marie can no longer keep the secret she's hidden all these years. Amidst the guilt and the secrets lies Marie's hope that the secret sure to be Jack's political undoing also be the thread that brings them together again.
