Cat's trying to move on alone, but it's hard.

She finds a new place to live, works hard on her degree and gets a new job - all temporary distractions, but her friends can see she's not happy.

There's a Reuben James-shaped hole in her heart, and she's not sure anyone else will ever be able to fill it.

Can a new man, however devoted, really be the answer to all her problems?

This is the third book in a young adult romance trilogy.
