PATELS: A GUJURATI COMMUNITY HISTORY IN THE UNITED STATES by Govind B. Bhakta is designed to provide a comprehensive report on the most significant social, historical, cultural, and demographic aspects of the Indo-American Patidar of the Surat, Bulsar, and Navsari districts of Gujarat State, India. The book, the first of its kind, documents extensively the immigration and settlement of Indo-American Patels to the United States, focusing on the 1960s to the present. Patels are highly visible on the American urban landscape, especially in motel businesses, throughout the nation. This book is an invaluable guide to the Patel contribution to American entrepreneurship, culture, and the professions through the eyes of first and second generation individuals, households, and community organizations in the U.S. With photographs, charts, tables, and listings of community organizations in the U.S.
