The Daily Grind (Perfect Blend Book 4) Cosette Callaway

*This is book four in an eight part series.

Angela has broken things off with Clint and started dating her co-worker, Richard, in an attempt to get her life back to normal. A couple of weeks have passed, and yet nothing is getting easier. She decides that upping the stakes with Richard might solve some of her problems, but will that only create more?

6.770 Words

*This story is intended for mature audiences, ages 18 and older.

Excerpt:

Richard's hand holding mine was clammy as we walked up to his apartment. He turned to me as he unlocked the door, cupping my jaw and leaning down to kiss me. I responded eagerly, happy that we wouldn't have to do the awkward "so, this is my apartment, would you like something to drink" small talk. He wrapped his thick arms around me and pulled me up against him, backing us into his apartment.

As he reached down to pick me up our lips disconnected and his forehead bumped against my nose. He grunted, his fingers digging into my ass as he boosted me up, and I tried to facilitate the process, bracing my arms around his broad shoulders and lifting my legs to wrap around his waist.

It was awkward, it was so goddamn awkward, and I started giggling to relieve the tension, more amused than turned on. Richard was apparently not pleased by this, as he frowned up at me. I kissed him again, hoping to get things back on track, and he closed his eyes and started walking us back towards his bedroom. He set me down on my feet, his fingers tugging roughly at my shirt. I felt the material strain and I hurried to help him before it ripped, my hands taking over and pulling it over my head. I also kicked off my shoes and jeans while Richard similarly undressed himself.

I had to admit, his body was breathtaking, a work of art and muscle. Even though he had been working as a teacher for the past several years, he obviously kept up at the gym. I took a second to drink him in: his round, capped shoulders, his thick, defined abs, and that little V pointing like an arrow down to his groin, muscles I always referred to as a man's "ken dolls." I was pretty sure my mouth was salivating. Richard looked more like a stereotypical porn star than Clint did, I thought, before mentally slapping myself. I needed to focus!
