Better Not Love Me (Don't Wait For Me Book 2) Dan Kolbet

Amelia Cook never wanted to be a corporate executive responsible for a toy business that spanned the country. She accepted the job out of obligation to her past love. The work has forced her away from her children and broken her marriage. After years of misery, she's decided to walk away. Single, unemployed and uninspired, Amelia rents a palatial lake cabin for the summer and attempts to reconnect with her children who barely recognize the mom they once knew. Amelia's summer at the lake takes a surprise turn when a handsome man moves into the cabin next door. The only problem? It's her old boss, Nate. Can Amelia forgive Nate's past behavior, find love and forge a bond with her children all while being dragged back into the corporate life she loathes?

Better Not Love Me is the sequel to Don't Wait For Me.
