It's not easy being in love for the first time, especially when the person you're in love with has shared your home growing up with you for the last ten years.

But now that Emily and Jason are off to University and sharing an apartment together off campus, it's much harder to deny the attraction that they have for one another.

Now they must decide. Do they continue to ignore their feelings, or give into temptation and risk it all for a chance at true love?
