The Apology: What happens in the men's room stays in the men's room Brian Anglin

This story is an apology to a man I have never met. It's not an excuse or a justification in any way. But, if I can word it just right, perhaps these thoughtful words will serve as a humble explanation of exactly what happened in the public men's room at the Loew's movie theater in the winter of 1984.

If you are that man, you know what I'm talking about.
