The Matrix As It Is: A Different Point Of View David E. Robinson

The Constitution FOR the United States was converted into a Trust. A Trust is: "A legal obligation with respect to property given by one person (the donor), to another person (the trustee), to the advantage of a beneficiary (in this case the Americans)." The property in this United States Trust includes all land, your personal possessions that you think you own, and your physical body. The donor of the Trust is the Queen of England and the Holy Roman Church. The Trustees are all federal and state public officials. This means that they are Agents of a foreign power; the Vatican and the Queen. The Constitution was converted into a Trust because, as a non-trust business plan, it bound the hands of our government officials with chains. By their converting it into a Trust, our public officials were then free to make any changes they desired to the United States government without their constituents knowledge or consent.
