Patrick Lee, Robert P. George

Body-Self Dualism in Contemporary Ethics and Politics Patrick Lee, Robert P. George

This book treats the question of what a human person is and the ethical and political controversies of abortion, hedonism and drug-taking, euthanasia, and sex ethics. It defends the position that human beings are both body and soul, with a fundamental and morally important difference from other animals. It defends the traditional position on the most controversial specific moral and political issues of the day.
