Gun Camera Footage Of World War II L. Douglas Keeney

This is a picture of the air war over Europe the way the pilots and air crew saw it -- from the cockpits of P-51s and P-47s and from the waist gunners position on a B-17s and B-24s. It contains one of the largest single collections of WWII air-to-air and air-to-ground photography ever published. Riveting gun camera footage of Nazi fighters caught in American gun sights; heart breaking photography of our own bombers breaking apart in the sky; stirring images as we pick apart targets on the ground. Printed on rich, 100 pound text stock with a matte finish cover.
