Songs About Life Trish Faber

As a writer for the local newspaper, Alex Hanson is naturally curious. So when she crosses paths with Bobby, a bedraggled, regular at Wilken's Place, she becomes intrigued. Who was this man and what was his story? As she struggles to uncover the mystery surrounding Bobby, Alex realizes that maybe the same questions apply to her own life. Who was she and what was her story? Join Alex on her hilarious journey of self-discovery...the people she meets, her friends and her lovers. Will she ever find all the pieces of her puzzle? She can only hope... "Songs About Life" is a witty, intelligent commentary about life as seen through the eyes of a successful thirty-something woman. Alex is every woman -flawed, scarred and tormented by demons from her past and the uncertainties of her future. But she is also strong and real, determined to face whatever comes her way, doing it all with charm, dignity and a sense of pride. ..."My name's Matt." He held out his hand. Did I shake it or just thrust it down my shirt? I was torn... Yes, Alex is a woman who knows what she wants. She just has absolutely no idea how to get it...
